As Pennsylvania Recognizes
OCTOBER AS PARENT INVOLVEMENT MONTH

The Pennsylvania Parent Information and Resource Center (PA PIRC), PA PIRC Advisory Board and the Pennsylvania Parent Teacher Association (PA PTA) agree that as their children's first teachers, parents and families want their children to be successful in school and in life.

PA PIRC and PA PTA invite you to join us as Governor Rendell's proclamation of October as Parent Involvement Month is presented. The Pennsylvania House and Senate will introduce Resolutions that honor parent and family involvement. Many other states will also observe Parent Involvement Month this fall.

The Governor's proclamation will be read during a press briefing in the Capitol Rotunda, Harrisburg on October 8, 2008 at 10:00 a.m. For more information contact Karen Shanoski at 717-763-1661 x 139 or check the web: www.center-school.org/pa-pirc.

Pennsylvania's Parent Information and Resource Center (PIRC) is funded by the U.S. Department of Education's Office of Innovation and Improvement. Grant recipient, Next Century, Inc., a 501 (c) (3) corporation, has formed a strategic partnership with the Center for Schools and Communities (CSC), Academic Development Institute (ADI) and Temple University to implement the Pennsylvania PIRC.
